

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:58; sunset, 5:58.

James D. Hannahan, 70, said to have been last survivor of James boys' bandit gang, dead. Apoplexy.

Medals for brave firemen and policemen will be given by Mayor Harrison tomorrow.

Jeremiah O'Shea, arrested for assault, slipped handcuffs and fled from county jail. Captured.

Jennie Miller, nurse, 5029 Lake Park av., took poison while despondent. Condition critical.

George Tilden, 4210 Oakenwald av., and Charles Scott, 623 Wabash av., attacked by four men at 40th and Indiana av. Mistaken identity. Sluggers fled.

Att'y Wm. Chadwick, arrested for wife abandonment, freed and given charge of two children.

Collie dog owned by J. H. Moore, comm'r public works, Evanston, shot by police in belief it had rabies.

Frederick O'Malley sued by wife in Dublin for separate maintenance. Another woman.

New county jail plans discussed by county commissioners. Plan $2,000,000 bond issue.

Wm. Butterworth, attacked by robbers in store at 3027 Federal st., dead. Fractured skull.

Case of estate of Jacob Weidemann, gardner, against Mount Hope Cemetery Co., now 29 years old, to be continued again tomorrow.

Paul Zete, who shot and killed Joseph Zelinski, Nov. 14th, found guilty of manslaughter in Judge O'Connor's court.

Vincent Ballinski, 7131 S. Marshfield av., street cleaner, killed by auto of Jos. E. Brown, 7444 Harvard av.

Three men in auto hurled brick through window of Julius Freund's hardware store, 1609 W. 63rd. Escaped. Reason unknown.

Mrs. Mary Capizio, 1326 W. Ohio, to grand jury. Manslaughter. Killed Pa. Giottino, with hatchet. Said he attacked her.

Hazel Wilcox, 3607 Ellis Park, dead. Illegal operation. Police seeking man and midwife.

Gilbert's Restaurant, 162 W. Adams, held up. Lone bandit. $15.

Steve Rackich, counterfeiter, has pleaded guilty. 6 mo. in prison. Passed bum nickels on newsboys.

Lynn Butler, 5, 1910 Sherman av., missing from home. Evanston police searching.

John Soanski, 1440 N. Paulina, overcame by gas at breakfast table. Revived. Leaky stove.

Herman Meyer, 816 S. California av., dead. Gas. Out of job.

Mrs. Nellie Wahlen, 3661 Indiana av., started fire with kerosene. Dying from burns.

Several pupils from Bowen high school helped put out blaze in store of John Bolka, 2800 E. 89th.

Mrs. Hazel Carr, 6358 S. Green, dead as result of illegal operation, according to coroner's report. Police seeking midwife.

Several offices in county building to remain open despite fact commissioners declared today holiday.

Samuel Hamilton, arrested as "con" man, accused of theft of $1,500 diamonds from Mrs. Etta McConnell, 4406 Sheridan rd.

"Committee on local transportation sleeping on subway job."—Mayor Harrison.

Daniel Roche, 123 W. Ohio, tried suicide. Poison. May recover. Domestic troubles.

Heads of five brotherhoods of railroad men delayed strike question. To make more demands from railroads.

Edward Rivers, 4413 Berkeley av., suicided. Gun. Sickness.

Fred Schmidt suing Nicholas Naehl, saloonkeeper, for $25,000 for alienation of wife's affections.

First National Bank of Cleveland filed suit for $300,000 against Clark L. Poole & Co., timber land dealers.

Case of "Count" Erasmus de Dziubaniuk, arrested because the police